State of the Edge

Welcome to the State of the Edge Wiki

State of the Edge is an open source research and publishing project with an explicit goal of producing original research on edge computing, without vendor bias. The State of the Edge seeks to accelerate the edge computing industry by developing free, shareable research that can be used by all.

Technical Steering Committee

The Technical Steering Committee (TSC) is responsible for technical oversight of the State of the Edge Project, ensuring accuracy and fair play. The TSC consists of

- Chair: Matt Trifiro, Vapor IO
- Co-Chair: Jacob Smith, Equinix Metal
- Alex Marcham, Network Architecture 2020
- Molly Wojcik, Section
- Gavin Whitechurch, Topio Networks
- Yves Boudreau, Google Cloud
- Ildiko Vancsa, OpenStack Foundation
